President, Board of Directors

Secretary, Board of Directors

Director Sieve:

I know many of you have been following this saga of the training tower and North County Training Association, so I believe I have a final update for everyone today.

Let me give you a quick recap of what we know. In 2015, the taxpayers of the Robertson fire protection district spent $1.3M in bond proceeds to build a training facility which includes a driving course, training tower, and burn tower.

Shortly after taking office, it came to our attention that the prior Board & Administration had been letting an unincorporated entity known as North County Training Association use our training facilities for their personal organization... free of charge.

In fact, Robertson FPD has been paying a fee to participate in North County Training Association. North County Training Association charges $3000 a year in dues plus an $80 fee per uniformed member. These fees cover some classroom learning, some water training, and of course, live burn training. While other facilities are used, such as classrooms in other district buildings and Creve Coeur Lake, none of these other training sites compare to the cost of a training tower.

As you know, we recently discovered that as the primary user of our facility, North County Training has caused roughly $41K in damages to our burn tower from their use over the past 7 years. Originally, they acknowledged that this damage was a result of their heavy use of the tower as it is the primary location for their training. They use the tower about 6 months out of the year since the majority of their courses are taught at our District's tower.

There is also evidence that Robertson has been footing more of the bill for NCT than we initially thought. We have found checks showing we paid for fuel. We pay the water and electricity bills for the tower. We have not found evidence that these expenses, accrued by the use of the training tower, have been reimbursed. Yet based on their fees, estimated revenues, 1099's, quickbooks, and documents left behind in our office by their prior treasurer, Former Chief Maynard Howell, it appears this organization may be making a profit. Despite this, our taxpayers are still paying 29¢ per $100 of assessed value to pay off this training facility.

We have been trying to negotiate with North County Training over the repairs and use of the tower. We asked for what we believed to be reasonable concessions as we move toward finding more permanent solutions. We agreed to a two-year contract in order to ensure there were no interruptions to training for not only Robertson but all 17 departments within the Association. In our negotiations, we asked that the training tower repairs be covered, $1500 of our association fee be waived, and guaranteed training spots for our firefighters. We thought this was exceptionally reasonable given our understanding is that other departments in the area charge close to $30,000 a year to use their training towers. In essence, we have been paying North County Training to use our own training tower for the past 7 years.

However, we are at an impasse as North County Training Association is now declining to pay for the damages they caused unless we continue to let them use our tower 100% free of charge AND put their instructors on our District's workers compensation plan.

At this point, we believe it would be highly inappropriate for our District to continue forward with this relationship. The Board of Directors and Administration's ONLY concern is to look out for the residents and the employees of the District. We must ensure our men and women get the proper training they need to save lives and stay safe in structure fire.

We will not let this interfere with our employees getting the training they need. The greatest disservice we can pay to firefighters who have lost their lives in the line of duty is to not study and learn from their misfortune to ensure it never happens again.
